welcome to Armstrong County

Armstrong County, centrally located in the rolling, gentle hills of Western Pennsylvania and divided north to south by the picturesque Allegheny River, is a region where early American history shakes hands with a promising future. Delaware Indians first established their principle town of Kit-Han-Ne in the 1730s at present day Kittanning, the county seat.

The Allegheny River, first named "La Belle" River by French explorers in the 1680s, has served as Armstrong County's "highway" to the outside world, especially metropolitan Pittsburgh 40 miles to the south.

Armstrong County offers many diverse activities to be enjoyed by anybody who visits. Some of these activities include hunting, fishing, shopping, dining, camping, golfing, water adventures, parks, history, geo-caching, festivals, and fairs. Enjoy it all in Armstrong County!

2014 A Year in Review

We had a very busy year here in Armstrong County! The staff and Board of Directors at the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau consistently strive to promote the county.

For those of you who are not familiar with us, the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau was established in 1963 as the official tourism promotion agency for the County of Armstrong. Our mission is to promote tourism, tourism development, and the interests of the travel and hospitality industries of our region, thereby contributing to the economic growth and well-being of the area. We are a nonprofit, membership based organization with approximately 200 members.

Annual Open House

Every year the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau invites the community to celebrate National Travel and Tourism week with an open house. This year the open house was held at the Tourist Bureau from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on Friday, May 9, 2014. Several members of the ACTB were present at the open house and participated by setting up tables with information about their organizations. We also had entertainment provided by DJ AleKat, Ava Bosco, Frailey Scaife, Western PA Music Academy, and Matt Janovsky. We handed out nearly 300 pair of Armstrong County sunglasses. Later that evening we also offered a hands-on Geo Cache demonstration at the Kittanning Riverfront Park.

Annual Luncheon

This past year we held our Annual Member's Luncheon at Renshaw Family Farms on October 22, 2014. The luncheon was held in their newly built banquet facility and the lunch was catered by Cooper's Catering and Baking Services. Everyone had a chance to see the farm in action as school groups were coming in and out to attend the annual Pumpkin Fest.

Prior to the luncheon we held a Member's Mingle where members of the tourist bureau set up tables and networked with each other. We had about 56 members attend the Luncheon.

Gateway Clipper Cruise

We decided to change things up a bit this year for the Annual Fall Foliage Tour. On October 12, 2014 the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau and attendees climbed aboard the Gateway Clipper's Princess for a fall foliage dinner cruise along the Allegheny River. The trip was a complete success, selling out in less than 24 hours with 180 people aboard. We look forward to bringing the Gateway Clipper back to Armstrong County in 2015.

A special thanks goes out to RJ Brown River Towing for providing us with a space to board!

history

No matter where you are in Armstrong County you are walking in the footsteps of history. The county is home to many historical sites, including the Battle of Kittanning, Drake's Log Cabin, the childhood home of Nellie Bly, the Pennsylvania Bicentennial Woak-Hanne Farm, and many more. History buffs will also be fascinated with the rich history surrounding the Battle of Kittanning. During the French and Indian War, the village of Kit-Han-Ne was the center for Indian raids on white settlements in Western Pennsylvania and parts of Maryland and Virginia. Colonel John Armstrong led 300 frontier troops in an attack on the village on the morning of September 8, 1765. Most of the village was destroyed and the tribe leader, Captain Jacobs, was killed. Although Armstrong suffered losses, the battle was considered a victory because the tribe left the village and most of the raids ceased.

Armstrong County, named after Colonel John Armstrong, was formed in 1800 from parts of three other counties (Lycoming, Allegheny, and Westmoreland). Kittanning, from the Indian name Kit-Han-Ne, was the original county seat and remains so today. Many of the historical sites in Armstrong County can be visited while completing the Armstrong County GeoTrail, a series of geocaches hidden throughout Armstrong County. For more information on geocaching, visit www.geocaching.com.

Brown's Landing Campground and Marina

300 Mile Long Hill Road
Kittanning, PA 16201
724.747.1589
rjbrownrivertowing@gmail.com

Brown's Landing Campground and Marina was formed in 2010 and opened in 2013 by Joshua Sasfai, the grandson of the late Robert J. Brown who owned the property prior. The facility offers a paved launch ramp, courtesy dock, and a paved spacious parking lot for boats and their trailers. There is also approximately 600 ft of river frontage for private docks. The entire area is fenced in for privacy and protection of every one's boat and camper. The electric gate to enter offers 24/7 access with each person getting their own personal gate code. Five minutes from Rt28 and 422. Just minutes from shopping plazas and restaurants so you can get the relaxing feel of the river and trees without sacrificing convenience. There is plenty of room for storage for winter months and heavy equipment to handle the bigger boats and campers.

2014 Fall Foliage Cruise Along the Allegheny River

The Armstrong County Tourist Bureau's goal to bring the "Princess" up the Allegheny for the 2014 Fall Foiliage Cruise was proven to be a success as 180 attendees boarded The Gateway Clipper Fleet on Sunday, October 12. At first word of the cruise, residents from Armstrong and surrounding counties anxiously awaited for tickets to be released for sale at 9am on October 1 which sold out by approximately 8:15am the next morning, Thursday, October 2.

"People are very excited about the cruise, we sold out in less than 24 hours."
Kevin Andrews, Director of the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau.

Shortly after boarding at RJ Brown River Towing beneath the Judge J. Frank Graff Bridge at 4pm, the "Princess" cruised through Lock 7 and up the river while passengers enjoyed a delicious dinner with a beautiful view of the fall foliage. While the window lined Gateway Clipper Fleet provided the perfect opportunity for passengers to simultaniously dine and view the scenery, many visited the outer and upper deck for an "all around" view.

The Armstrong County Tourist Bureau would like to thank NexTier Bank who was a Deck Crew sponsor as well as our shipmate sponsors, BLX, Inc. and Sintermet, LLC. We would also like to thank the 2014 Fall Foliage Cruise passengers for contributing to the success of the cruise.

Water adventures

Is there anything better than a lazy day on the water? One of Armstrong County's greatest treasures is her lakes, rivers, and streams, which provide so many recreational opportunities.

Allegheny River

Armstrong County has a truly spectacular waterway within its boundaries, the Allegheny River. Recreational boaters as well as seasoned sportsmen have enjoyed the many benefits of this scenic and popular waterway. Great fishing opportunities abound on the Allegheny! The river's bounty boasts a variety of species including: small-mouth bass, walleye, musky, and catfish. In fact, 47 different varieties of fish can be found in sections of the Allegheny. Whether fishing from a secluded bank or from the bow of your boat, anglers are sure to find plenty of exciting fishing action on the Allegheny. A great place for recreational boating and water fun including skiing, swimming, and tubing are favorite activities of Allegheny River recreational boaters. Bring your boat to any one of our public or private marinas and launches to get in on all the action.

Kiski River

The Kiskiminetas River is an absolutely gorgeous river that makes up the entire southern border of Armstrong County. An official state water trail, it was also voted PA River of the Year in 2000. The Kiski is fast becoming THE destination for canoeing, kayaking, and fishing. As a historical part of the Pennsylvania Mainline Canal, you will also find historical sites along the shore dating back to the early 1800's. Now officially designated as a key link in the Pittsburgh to Harrisburg Mainline Canal Greenway, the Kiski river is sure to impress! Come see what it's all about.

Crooked Creek Lake

114 Park Main Road • Ford City, PA 16226 • 724-763-3161 • www.lrp.usace.army.mil

Nestled among the rolling hills of Western Pennsylvania, Crooked Creek Lake is the ideal setting for year-round outdoor activities. Located only 30 miles northeast of Pittsburgh, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers invites you to discover the beauty of the lake and surrounding countryside at Crooked Creek. The lake and its miles of scenic shoreline provide unlimited opportunities for water-based recreation. A boat launch with ample trailer parking is available for boating and water-skiing enthusiasts. Swimmers and sunbathers will appreciate the lake's sandy peninsula beach and bath houses. The great variety and abundance of fish found in the lake lure many fishermen to its waters. Crooked Creek Lake has yielded many fine catches of bass, musky, sunfish, and crappie. Handicapped facilities are located at the overflow of the dam, including a fishing pier, parking area, picnic area, and restrooms. Picnicking is a favorite pastime at Crooked Creek. There are six centrally located picnic areas maintained by the Corps that provide picnic tables and charcoal grills.

Keystone Lake

PA State Route 210 (2.5 Miles North of Route 422)

Keystone Lake, 850 acres and 5.5 miles long, is the largest lake in Armstrong County. The Lake contains shallows and wetlands with depths as deep as 90 feet. Owned and operated by Reliant Energy as a cooling water supply for Keystone Power Plant, the lake and surrounding area is open for public use and is controlled by the PA Fish & Boat Commission and all their rules and regulations. No swimming is allowed in the lake, but boats up to 9.9 horse power are allowed. Keystone Lake provides an excellent warm water fishery with large and small mouth bass, walleye, musky, perch, crappies, bluegills, sunfish, pumpkin heads, and trout (stocked). A trophy bass lake, professional tournaments have been held here. Keystone Lake has two formal boat launches, one at NuMine (north shore) off of Route 85 at White Oak Road, and a second boat launch at Atwood (south shore) off of Route 210 at the village of Atwood. These are excellent facilities with large parking areas. There are also several primitive access areas around the lake. Several thousand acres surrounding the lake are open to hunting (PA Game Commission laws and regulations apply).
If winter weather conditions permit, Keystone Lake is an excellent place for ice fishing!

Mahoning Creek Lake & Dam

145 Dam Site Road • New Bethlehem, PA • 814-257-8811

Situated among steep-sided valleys and forested hillsides, Mahoning Creek Lake is surrounded by the rugged and striking terrain of Western Pennsylvania. Boating and fishing, hiking, camping and picnicking are a few of the outdoor activities one can enjoy here. Boating on the lake is limited to 10hp. Canoeists, fishermen, and small boaters will appreciate the peaceful and relaxed atmosphere that is characteristic of the lake. Located in the area of the dam is a tree shaded picnic area with modern restrooms, grills, picnic tables, playground, and walking trails. Call to schedule a thrilling tour of the dam which bills itself as "The best Dam tour in the world!"

Hit the trails

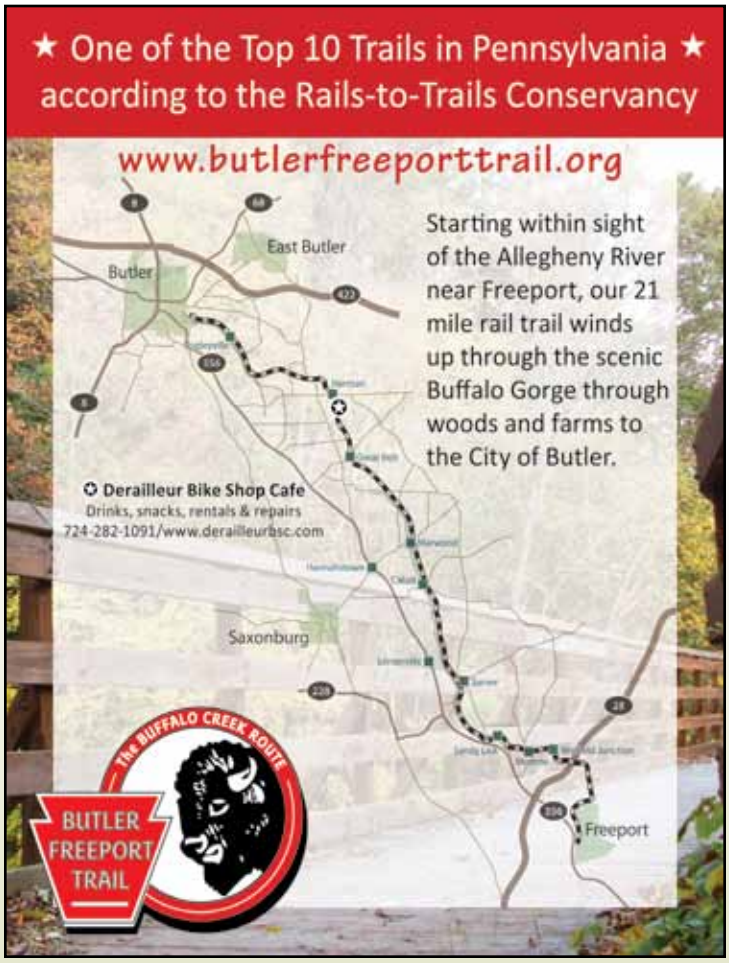
Grab your running shoes, your bike, or your dog and hit the trails! Outdoor enthusiasts have several scenic Armstrong County trails from which to choose. Whether you are hiking, biking, walking, running, geocaching, bird watching, cross country skiing, snow shoeing, or horseback riding, these Armstrong County trails offer pathways through the beautiful and historically rich landscape.



Armstrong Trail

The 35 mile long Armstrong Trail is located on the former Allegheny Valley Railroad corridor along the eastern bank of the Allegheny River in Armstrong and Clarion Counties. The trail links such towns as Ford City, Kittanning and East Brady and is a great place to bicycle, walk, jog, cross-country ski, birdwatch, geocache, or exercise in a safe relaxing environment. The trail is for non-motorized use only. 28 miles of trail have been improved with crushed limestone or asphalt surface. Plans are being developed to improve the trail's conditions and to better establish connections with the Redbank Valley Trails and others in the Erie to Pittsburgh Trail. Our trail is rich with local history, from Native Americans to river travel to iron production to the railroads. Remnants of villages, iron furnaces, coke ovens, train stations, etc. can be found along the trail. A train turntable, tunnel, and coaling tower still stand. Directions to trail parking areas, maps, updates to trail conditions, membership, meeting times, trail events and trail workdays can be found by visiting armstrongrailstotrails.org or on Facebook at Armstrong Rails to Trails.

Baker Trail

Armstrong County's premier hiking trail, the Baker Trail, covers 141 miles and extends from Freeport, Armstrong County to the Allegheny National Forest. This hiking trail follows forest paths, old jeep trails and dirt roads through woods, gamelands, and farmlands and is marked by yellow blazes. 18 miles of the trail share a footpath with the North Country Scenic Trail. It is strongly recommended that every person or group planning on hiking the Baker Trail have a trail guidebook. A comprehensive guide to the Baker Trail describes the trail, points of interest, shelter locations, and contains a full set of topographical maps and is available to purchase at the Tourist Bureau office as well as the Rachel Carson Trails Conservancy who maintains this hiking trail. For volunteer, steward opportunities, or questions contact Rachel Carson Trails Conservancy at www.rachelcarsontrails.org.

Butler Freeport Community Trail

The Butler Freeport Community Trail is a 21 mile scenic rail-trail in Armstrong and Butler counties. The trail has a crushed limestone surface and is suitable to all forms of non-motorized recreation such as hiking, cycling, walking, running, geocaching, birding, and cross country skiing. It is handicapped accessible for all to enjoy!

Cowanshannock Trail

This 11.4 mile trail leads to one of Armstrong County's best kept secrets, Buttermilk Falls! Follow this crushed-limestone surface trail on foot or by bike from the trailhead at the Bernard C. Snyder picnic area, located just off of State Route 1033 north of Kittanning. You can also access the Armstrong Trail from this location. The Bernard C. Snyder Picnic Area offers a pavilion, restrooms, charcoal-burning grills, a picnic area, and is home to the Canfield-Holmes Wildlife Sanctuary. This trail is great for hikers, bikers, birdwatchers, wildflower enthusiasts, and anglers. A nearby boat launch area provides access to the mouth of Cowanshannock Creek as well as the Allegheny River.

Great Shamokin Path

Built on an abandoned railroad line as one of the first rails to trails, the Great Shamokin Path is named after the path that once linked the Allegheny and Susquehanna Rivers and ran from Kittanning to Sunbury. The Great Shamokin Path is a hiking, biking, and birding trail. It runs for 4.1 miles between NuMine and Rose Valley, paralleling the Cowanshannock Creek and Route 85. This primitive grass- covered trail meanders steadily through the Cowanshannock Creek Valley past the Devil's Washbasin, a 1.5 acre lake. This lake is named after a dam that controlled the water across the creek to obtain water for steam engines. It is always smoky, steamy and eerie looking, and is currently stocked with fish for a unique fishing spot. The Devil's Washbasin also offers picnic areas.

North Country Trail

This National Scenic Trail covers 4,600 miles across seven states. The National Park Service administers the trail and our local section of the trail is developed, maintained, and promoted by the Butler Chapter. From McConnells Mill State Park to the city of Parker the 47 miles of trail in Armstrong and Butler Counties offer a variety of outstanding outdoor adventures.

Redbank Valley Trails

This new 51-mile, non-motorized, 4-season trail is being improved by Redbank Valley Trails Association, Members on a Mission. Acquired mid-2010, by December 2011 and with 5000+ volunteer hours, more than 25 miles of the Low Grade Railroad constructed in the 1870's has been improved with grading, compacting and crushed limestone in many areas. 13 bridges have been decked and railed. 42 miles follow scenic Redbank Creek thru mostly natural areas where wildlife abounds, from the Allegheny River thru New Bethlehem to Brookville. Future improvements include 3 tunnels, the trail's surface, rest areas, signage, creek access and historic markers. RVTA's goal is to maintain and continuously improve the trail for use by bicyclists, hikers, walkers, cross country skiers, horses in some wider areas and other who enjoy the beautiful unspoiled scenery. Please visit www.redbankvalleytrails.org for current conditions, events and information to help you plan your visit.

Roaring Run Recreation Area

The Roaring Run Recreation Area is owned and operated by the Roaring Run Watershed Association. This 653 acre conservation and recreation project is open to the public year-round, from dawn to dusk. Over 15 miles of hiking and mountain biking trails exist throughout the property as well as two premier surfaced trails, the "Roaring Run Trail" and the "Rock Furnace Trail". A canoeing/kayaking launch for Kiskiminetas River access is located at the Roaring Run trailhead. The parking area has a capacity for 105 vehicles. Picnic tables and a pavilion are at the trailhead. The Roaring Run Trail and the lower 1.2 mile of the Rock Furnace Trail are suitable for persons with disabilities. Both of the surfaced trails are suitable for bicycles in their entirety. The 6.5 miles of the Roaring Run Trail are hard packed limestone. The trail ends in the town of Edmon. Beginning at the parking area on Canal Road, the Roaring Run Trail parallels the Kiskiminetas River to the southeast. At the 1.5 mile mark the remains of Canal Lock No. 15 can be seen. Further up the trail at the 4.5 mile mark, the remains of the piers for the bridge that carried the canal towpath over Flat Run can be observed. The Rock Furnace Trail is a 1.5 mile hard surfaced trail that joins the Roaring Run Trail at the 1.5 mile mark. This trail passes through the beautiful Roaring Run Valley, where many small waterfalls and huge rocks can be found. The remains of the first iron furnace in the Kiskiminetas Valley can be found across the trail from the huge "Camel Back Rock." Visit our website www.roaringrun.org for more information.

We are happy to offer three beautiful, spacious, and accommodating pavilions for rent. Each shelter is equipped with running water and electricity. These pavilions are the ideal place to celebrate a special occasion or hold a family reunion for only $50. The park has various activities such as basketball, skateboarding, softball, baseball, soccer, horseshoes, tennis, street hockey and a playground area. We hope to put in a shuffleboard court this summer. Donations and suggestions are appreciated. Please send them to PO Box 46, Elderton, PA 15736. Also, dates for some events such as Apple Butter Festival, Light-Up Elderton Night, etc., can be found on the events page!

Whether you are new to Armstrong County or have lived here all your life, it is our hope that you enjoy all we have to offer by discovering the

Armstrong GeoTrail!

Come. Find! Discover...a little bit of our history, culture and wealth of outdoor beauty and recreation. Each site has been selected due to its role in Armstrong County's story.

While you're searching for caches don't forget to stop, take a look around and explore other attractions. Be sure to check out our local restaurants, specialty stores, trail network, beautiful Allegheny River vistas, and so much more! Much more lies beyond the GeoTrail so don't be afraid to step off the trail and take a stroll through Armstrong County!

Stop by the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau for more information or go to www.armstrongcounty.com. To get your passport, contact or visit us at the Armstrong County Tourist Bureau or visit The River's Edge Canoe and Kayak or Transue's Bait and Tackle.

ARMSTRONG GEOTRAIL

Geocaching (pronounced geo-cashing) is a worldwide game of hiding and seeking treasure. A geocacher can place a geocache anywhere in the world, pinpoint its location using GPS technology and then share the geocache's existence and location online. Anyone with a GPS device can then try to locate the geocache.

Currently, there are over 429 geocaches in the 16201 Kittanning, PA zip code, 9,934 within 100 miles of 16201 and 17,110 in Pennsylvania. For more information on geocaching, visit www.geocaching.com.
